Nomination Process

History

The Dayton Amateur Golf Hall of Fame began in 1978 when the first four golfers were inducted into the Hall. Other inductions were made in 1979, 1981, 1982, 1984, 1986, 1989, 1993, 1995, 1998, 2001 and 2009. Fifty-four men and women are part of the exclusive group.

General Information

The Dayton Golf Commission is planning to induct new members into the Hall of Fame this year. Candidates shall be persons from the local area, who have made outstanding contributions to the game of golf, either locally or on the state or national level. The contribution may either be in the area of meritorious service or superior performance. Nominees must have, or have had, an association with a Dayton area golf course. Nominees should exhibit outstanding character and integrity.

How Nominations Are Received

Candidates may be nominated by anyone in the Dayton area. Forms for nominations will be available at each of Dayton's golf courses, other courses in the area and on the Kittyhawk Golf Course website www.kittyhawkgolfcenter.com. Forms must be signed by the person(s) making the nomination and include a list of the nominee's accomplishments, dates of accomplishments and other pertinent information. Documentation may be submitted to any City of Dayton golf professional, any member of the Hall of Fame Committee or mailed to the Division of Golf, City of Dayton, 3383 Chuck Wagner Lane, Dayton, OH 45414.

Selection Approval

The Hall of Fame Committee will be responsible for the selection of inductees and the names of the finalists are submitted to the Golf Commission for approval.

Induction Ceremony & Golf Outing

Inductees, their families and friends will be honored at an Induction Ceremony held at Community, Kittyhawk or Madden Golf Course. A Golf Outing will immediately follow the Induction Ceremony.
